Biography

Franck Ravel is a freelance colorist based in Brussels.

After graduating from the metal sculpture class at Applied Arts in Paris he starts in the cinema industry as production designer. He then learns and trains post production tools and processes. He works as VFX artist for 4 years and gradually specializes in color correction.

Since 2006, he has been working as a colorist for more than 101 feature films, collaborating with -amongst many other- Nuri Bilge Ceylan, Luc & Jean-Pierre Dardenne, Sandrine Bonnaire, Joachim Lafosse, Amos Kolek and Wang Bing.

Beside his color grading activities, he writes and directs shorts that explore links between emotions and visual perceptions.
